JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $956,718.90 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663A. The amount of restitution shall be paid to the victims listed in the confidential Presentence Report.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after the release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $200, or 10 percent of the defendant's gross income, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Mahmoud Khalid Azzam (CR 07-173 GHK) and Shelly Patrice Poling (CR 07-172 GHK), for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Thirty-Six (36) months. This term consists of 36 months on each of Counts 1, 2, 3 and 6 of the Indictment, be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five (5) years. This term consists of 3 years on Count 1 and 5 years on Count 2, 3, and 6 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs, if the defendant has the ability to do so, of treating the defendant's mental health to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
5. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving loan programs, telemarketing activities, investment programs or any other business involving the solicitation of funds or cold-calls to customers without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns and a signed release authorizing their disclosure; and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income, expenses, and liabilities of the defendant;
7. The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used of payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request;
8. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds in excess of $500, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
9. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Upon motion of the government, all remaining counts are ordered dismissed.

It is ordered that the defendant shall surrender himself to the facility designated by the Bureau of Prisons, on or before 12 noon, June 7, 2010. In the absence of such designation the defendant shall report on the same date and time to the U. S. Marshal, located at: 312 N. Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IT IS RECOMMENDED that the defendant be designated to a facility in the Southern California area.

Bond exonerated upon surrender.

Defendant waives his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
